It is significant that the Republicans are bringing all their guns to bear on what they are piecased to style "the new departure." The New York Tribune, the leader of the Republican press, employs a correspondent at a handsome salary to interview every conspicuous hot-head in the South, that his insane babbling may be turned to account, and every silly utterance of obscure and uninfluential publications that are hanging to the skrits of the Democratic party is copied by Republican journals and magnified into an expression of public opinion. Everything that can be tortured rate a semblance of opposition to the constitutional amendaments is heralded in capitals in Republican newspapers and documents, and not one way of the interior of the government of national defense, and had newspapers and documents, and not one word is lost upon their gullible readers.

For the willful and deliberate marplot who having tailed to get his way, would desiroy that which he could not control we have no compromise. The agitator who seeks to break up the harmony of the Democratic party solely to gratify his pride of opinion, and for this purpose westle ses up one standard in Kentucky and another elsewhere, ought to receive very short shrift from honest and intelligent Democrats. But there are thousands of sincere men who have been misled by the clamor and deceived by the false prophecies of the Bounbons, and for these we have only kind words and conciliation. we have only kind words and conciliation of the fight against the three amendments.

As long as the fight had any life in it we made it. No matter how they were adopted, and we think they were adopted by very corrupt applicances, those amend-ments were incorporated into the organic law of the land under the forms of estab-listed-usage. They have gone into effect. By reason of the Thirteenth the negroes are iree. By reason of the Fourteenth they are citizens. By reason of the Fifteenth they are voters. Can we deprive them of the Fliteenth amendment would not de-prive them of suffrage, because most of the States in their local constitutions have conferred that. On the basis now laid down by the Democrats of Obio, Pennsylvania and Iowa—s basis that arises out of a common-place and obvious view of facts as they place and opvious view of racts as they are and, not as we would have them—a basis that underlies the whole Democratic fabric and is sure to form the groundwork of the next National Democratic platform—we sak right thinking men of every antecedent ophnion to place themselves, and we appeal not less to Republicans, whose votes are peeded to aske the country from we appeal not less to Republicans, whose votes are needed to save the country from the Radicals, than to those Democrats who mistakenly consider it undemocratic to succeed and who would go on forever polling a minority of votes, whilst our liberties are sunk deeper and deeper in the abies of usurpation and misrule.

At all times we have sought the harmony of our party. Our assailants only have refused to make any conceasing. These of our party. Our assailants only have refused to make any concession. They would sacrifice nothing. They must rule or else they will ruln, and from the first they have pursued us with a virulence which has overleaped and defeated itself-We ask no quarter from them. All that we ask is the unity of the Democratic party, which they are trying to destroy.

Iowa follows close upon the footsteps of Ohio and Pennsylvania. It is the fixed purpose of the Democratic party to abandon its untenable line of assault upon the three last constitutional amendments. the three last constitutional amendments. Presently there will not be a single State left to keep the Bourbons company, and, if they prefer the Radicals to the "new departure," as they say they do, the coner they cease calling themselves Democrate, and go over to the enemy, bag and baggage, the better for them, for honesty and for us. They are only marpious and stumbling-blocks where they are—a source of constant apprehension to their associates and of unhappiness to themselves. It, for the sake of decency, they don't want to join the Radicals out-A white woman in Wythe county, Vs., who has for several mouths past lived as the wide of a negro man, was treated to a coat of tar and feathers on Saturday last, by persons reading near her. of the ministry of the interior of the government of national defense, and had repeatedly beasted of having some documents in his possession which were decidedly to the discredit of some members of that government. Some other persons connected with public affairs in France have also disappeared in a mysterious and suspicious manner, and appearances indicate strongly that they have been removed because they knew too indicate strongly that they have been removed because they knew too much. A cable dispatch informs us that ROCHEFORT's trial was postponed on account of startling developments having come to light in regard to certain practices of the men of the 4th of September, in which he was strongly implicated, so that it seems his trial will be for other offenses than merely those of the press.

The manner in which ROCHEFORT tried to escape from France shows how uneafe.

After having tred to lead the authorities off the scent in regard to the day of his departure from Paris, he assumed an excellent diaguise, and had his face shaved clean. He traveled under the name of MARK, and had a passport for that name. In fact, he cluded the viginance of the Parisiana, but we recognized at the railroad station of Meaux, and arrested in spite of his stouly denying his identity. A single visit to Massachusetts by the President of the United States forty-five years ago called flown upon his head the severest animadversion. The student of history is obliged to smile when he reads what was then said upon the subject, especially should he think of the wonder rul progress made by our present Chief Magistrate in the science of locomotion, But we need not go back to Mr. Adams' day. If any President before the year 1880 had left his official duties and gone off on long pleasure excursions, he would have raised a storm of popular indignation throughout the country. He would have been denounced as unfaithful to the high trust reposed in him, and even his own party would have turned against him. Not so with President Granz. He goes away whenever the spirit mores him, and nobody appears to care anything about it. He is now comfortably stored away at Long Branch, where he intends to remain for months, and his great office is left to take care of itself. The members of his Cabinest, too, influenced by his example, ahandon their posts and go wherever inclination or interest calls them. There was but one Cabinet officer last summer who could be found continuously in the discharge of his duties, and he, not long after the return of the Prendent from his summer's trohe at Long Branch, got up one morning and found his official head off. Of course we altude to Secretary Cox. It was only the other day that the present Secretary allude to Secretary Cox. It was only the other day that the present Secretary of the Interior, Mr. DELANO, was over in Georgia looking after his railroad interest. He is now in Ohio working for the renom-ination of General Guant and for his own ination of General Grant and for his own elevation, to a sear in the Senate of the United States. How many of his col-leagues in the Cabinet are now in Wash-iugton we are not informed, but, doubt-less, they will all be off in due season —some for pleasure, some for profit, and some to keep up with the fashion intro-duced by their chief.

SOUTHERN OPINION

Astombhement and Indignation.

[Herald Wilmington, N. C., Letten.]

Great as was the sensition created at the North by the speech of Mr. Jefferson Davis at Atlanta, it was no less great in the Bouth. To say that the people here were surprised or astomished would give only a faint idea of how this extraordinary speech was received whan the time and the very peculiar circumstances of the Southern people are taken unto consideration. They were shocked at the utterances of the South swip per a latent and with the discretion of a man poressing or disary common sense. However much the people of the South sympathized with Mr. Drawer of the South sympathized with Mr. Drawer of the South spond doubt that they never wished the opportunity and never desired that he should be so foolian as to utter them. A HISTORY OF THE PROJECT.

Gererior Stevenson, in his first annual message to the Legislature of 1867-5, recommended changes is the pentientiary system of the State, and is shot the establishment of a state House of Reform. This part of the message was by recolution referred to the Committee on Pentientiary in the House of Representative, of which committees the Hon. R. K. White, of Louisville, was chairman. Bearing thoroughly examined a target number of the reports of reformatory institutions, and investigated their working in all of its bearings, the Chair man, assisted by Judge Lee, of Penoleton county, prepared a bill to meet the case. This bill was reported to the House by the Chairman about the middle of January, 1883, and its passage camesty and forcibly recommended by nim. By a vary decided vote the bill pas ed the House; but it failed in the Senate. At the second session of the same Legislature Colonel Witte again reported the same bill, which passed—eight, Ser votting for it, and only three gainst it. Following the bill into the Senate, Colonel Witte there arged its passage so successfully that twenty-three voted for it, and only three gainst it.
